CAUGHT IN A TRAP.

Officers Were Notified of a Plan to Rob the Bank at Riley, Kan.

BID THEMSELVES IN THE BUILDING.

On the Appearance of the Burglars a Desperate Battle in the Dark Took Place.

The Leader of the Gang Was Over-powered and Handcuffed After Two Deputies Had Been Injured in the Fight.

Riley, Kan., Feb. 28.—Early Wednesday morning a gang of sunless bank robbers walked into a carefully laid trap here and the leader, Frank Wharton, alleged to be an expert safe blower, was captured after a desperate fight in the dark. The villainous gangster was unharmed. Some time ago Wharton came to this vicinity and it is alleged planned with some local characters to rob the Riley bank. One of the men named Johnson became frightened and notified the officers. Sheriff D. F. McCarthey, who had gone along with his part of the programme and Tuesday Johnston notified the sheriff that the raid would take place Wednesday morning.

Complete Burglar's Outfit.

Flinney took two deputies, D. M. Person and Harry Pugh, and the three secreted themselves in the bank building, leaving the light burning. At 12 o'clock the gangsters' appearance appeared, accompanied by Johnson. Guards were placed and the leader, with a short bar, tore the back door entirely off the hinges. He had selected Johnson as his assistant. Drills, dynamite fuses and a full outfit were brought along with arrangements made to crack the safe.

The sheriff thought it time to interfere, and demanded surrender, but Wharton was not to be taken. His first move was to smash the light and in the darkness the four men took to their heels. The two officers held the two robbers fast until they could get hold of him. The officers could not shoot because of the danger of hitting each other. Johnson finally succeeded in getting a light and Wharton was overpowered and handcuffed. He was taken to Manhattan and placed in jail. The two officers held in the first sign of danger and have not been captured. The country is being closely guarded, and it is not likely that they will be able to get away.

The deputies were badly injured by the bar in the fight, but will recover.

AN OHIO TOWN BURNING.

Fire Originated in the Standard Oil Co. Warehouse, Marion, O., and Half the Town Was Wiped Out.

Mantua, O., Feb. 28.—Mantua is burning. The fire started in a warehouse of the Standard Oil Co. in the center of the village. Already half the 200 houses of the village are in flames. It is thought scarcely a house can escape.

The central portion of the town has been wiped out, including the stores and the Mantua and Taylor hotels.

The fire spread so rapidly that it is thought some of those sleeping in the houses must have been burned to death. Hundreds of scantly clad residents are wandering about in the snow. Fire apparatus is on the way here from Cleveland, 25 miles distant.

The total damage is expected to exceed $150,000.

THE WAR VETERANS.

Washington, Feb. 28.—None of the veteran organizations of the civil war will participate in the inauguration in any of the inaugural ceremonies on next Monday. TROUBLE FEARED.

Dorothy Darler Identified Her Assailant and He Was Placed in the Indianapolis Jail.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY.

A Company of State Militia and the Police Held in Readiness to Quell a Mob.

One Hundred Stands of Arms Taken to the Prison and 75 Deputy Sheriffs Have Been Sworn in.

Indianaapolis, Ind., Feb. 28.—Dorothy Darler identified the Negro, Doc Reed, who had been held here since last Thursday afternoon, as her assailant. The streets of Indianapolis were as quiet as a Sunday and kept into line. She is yet in a dangerous condition. The Negro was brought here handcuffed to an officer. The party was met at a suburban station by a dozen policemen and detectives, with Superintendent Quigley in command. He and his wife, a widow, were in full uniform. The Negro was driven to the Darler home two miles from Indianapolis, an Indianapolis suburb.

Positively Identified.

The girl identified the Negro. Then, seeing the crowd of several hundred that had gathered around the house, wavered and said she was mistaken, but Dorothy Darler, who had left, said she positively identified the man, but feared to say when he was there, fearing the crowd would hang him in their yard. When the news scattered that Reed had been identified, there was instant excitement throughout the city. It was learned that the state governor, assistant general, sheriff and superintendent of police was called, and the companies of the national guard were placed under orders to be ready at a moment's notice to quell a mob.

A Gathering Dispersed.

One hundred stands of arms were taken to the prison and 75 deputy sheriffs were sworn in. In addition to this 100 policemen are on guard on every street in the vicinity of the jail and every one is stopped from approaching. This method avoiding trouble continues throughout the night. The crowds of people began gathering Wednesday evening and large groups of men appeared on every corner near the jail which is across the street from the city police station. Stern orders to disperse however, were given and the people began dispersing. The crowds then struck and early Wednesday evening and large groups of men appeared on every corner near the jail which is across the street from the city police station.

Probably the Wrong Man.

Morrisston, Ind., Feb. 28.—"Doc" Reed, under arrest at Indianapolis for his part in Dorothy Darler, of Indianapolis, Indiana, was identified as Negro, photographed in Indianapolis, Indiana, papers was here in Gentry's saloon at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, while the assault was committed 20 miles west at 3 o'clock. The Negro stayed here all afternoon and night at the Tyner hotel. Morton Arnett, 20, of Indianapolis, positively identified that the Negro was in town before 2 o'clock and until the next day, as they were in the saloon at the same time. Arnett gave him a quarter for lodgings. The Negro's face was smooth; he wore a dark stiff hat, told the same story as given in the papers.

MILITIA ON GUARD.

It is Feared That an Attempt Will Be Made to Lynch H. F. B. Booth, at Griffin, Ga.

Griffin, Ga., Feb. 28.—On orders from Gov. Candler, one company of militia was Wednesday night put on guard at the county jail here and another ordered to stand by to prevent any riot that may arise through the attempt of a mob to lynch H. F. B. Booth, superintendent of the Griffin Knitting Mills. Booth had some trouble last Monday with Mrs. Levinia Moore, one of the operatives, and was Tuesday night sent to the county jail here, but Wednesday morning he appeared at the mill for duty. He had previously been arrested and placed in the county jail for assaulting Mrs. Moore. The affair created great excitement among the operatives against Griffin, who is said to be a certain, though she claimed he was innocent, and without a ticket she claimed were given all operatives. Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee

Makes more cupfuls of better coffee to the pound than any of its imitations

Is prepared by an individual firm who made their reputation many years ago; who intend to maintain it as long as the people appreciate good, pure coffee, at an honest coffee price. If others imitate Arbuckles' coffee, that's their business; if you prefer an imitation coffee, that's your business. But you'll find that it's economy to pay a cent a pound more for Arbuckles'. Ask the grocer for Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee, the original package coffee, and refuse imitations under any other name.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you buy a definite part of some useful article (see list which each package contains). The article is yours whenever you present a certain number of signatures from the buyers of our retail dealers. Look for the signature.
